

TEXAS ASIAN REPUBLICANS SELECT BOARD FOR 2018 ELECTION

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 17, 2018

Austin, TX--The Texas Asian Republican Assembly (TARA) is pleased to announce its new executive board. The five member board has decades of political, grassroots, and community leadership experience. Board members include:

Ms. Loan Davis, of Houston, President
Mr. Cory Liu, of Houston, Vice President
Ms. Elisa Chan, of San Antonio, Secretary
Mr. Michael Sabat, of Grand Prairie, Treasurer

James Dickey, Chairman of the Republican Party of Texas, will swear in the new board at a January 20 dinner in Dallas featuring Texas Land Commissioner George P. Bush.

"I am thrilled to leave the TARA in the capable hands of the new board. The 2018 election is critical for the future of Texas and these individuals will work tirelessly to continue our mission of reaching and involving Asian Americans in Republican politics," said outgoing President Andy Nguyen, who is also the Tarrant County Commissioner, Precinct 2.

In addition to Mr. Nguyen, immediate past board members include Vice President Mr. Nghi Ho of Houston and Treasurer Ms. Fanny Jetton of Richmond. Ms. Chan will serve a second term as secretary.

For more information about TARA, please visit <http://taragop.com/>

###

The Texas Asian Republican Assembly is an official auxiliary of the Republican Party of Texas. It strives to engage Asian Americans across the state and build relationships based on core conservative values. TARA chapters are active in the greater metropolitan areas of Austin, Dallas-Fort Worth, Houston, and San Antonio.